Wigwam Tenris Club. The Wigvam Tennis Club is perhaps the sporting club with the longest continuous history in Kowloon. On Saturday the Wigwam was "at home" to its frends to celebrate the opening of the new tennis courts. Many availed themselves of the Club's hospitality and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent. The refreshments were in charge of Mesdames Broughall, Bone, Eustace and Frost, while Machado's band was in attendance and played some interesting selections. All he arrangements in and around the Courts reflected great credit on the Hon. Secretary, Mr Broughall.

CIVICIANS, 1; o MILITARY, 0. A large crowd saw representative military and civilian teams meet on the Hongkong Club's ground on Saturday. There were MITSUBISH COSHIKWAISHA two changes in the sides as originally Aspected, Browster (fluis) being understudied by Kelly (Buffs) and Goldenberg coming in in place of Williams. Corpl Edwirds was referee, and the teams were :---

Army-Beasley (R.G.A.); Bartlett (Buffs) and Coxon (R.E.); Waters (R.A.), Wharton (A.S.C.) and Date (Buffs); Barker (Buffs) and Drew (Buffs); Watts (R.A.) Taylor and Kelly (Buffs).

Olvilians Kew; Hamilton and McCubbin, (captain); Glover, Barlow, and Greguy; Goldenberg and Weston; Brown Coyne and Mead.

The soldiers were the first to become dangerous, an early movement by Barker and Drew looking likely. McCubbin, however, wis alive to his duty. The pressure was continued, and Kew was kept busy in dealing with hot shote in succession from Kelly, Tirlor, and Drew. A regular bombardment followed, and in the end Kew had to throw himself full length on the ground to save. Then Mead broke away for the civilists. He tapped the ball between Coxon's legs, showed him a clean pair of heels, pussed in to the centre, and Brown had no difficulty in scoring, After this there was a spell of mid-field play, to be followed by Lare tryingalong one which gave Key some worry. Watts had a fine opening but only just tipped the leather into Kew's hands, the goalie smartly throwing away. Both keepers were given work after this, but half time came with the Civilians leading. pressed, but Drew threw away a good opening by deliberately handling. Weston broke away and was making for goal when he was fooled just outside the area 816 Barlow took the kick and gave Beasley a hot handful. Once Watts was almost through at the other end, the ball just passing along the front of the goal, but no one was up. A long period of uninteresting play followed, during which the soldiers had many chances which they badly fumbled. At one end Brown struck the cross bar with a hot shot, which he followed up by giving Beasley another to stop, while at the other goal Dare called upon Kew to save. No further scoring took place, and time came with the store :-- Civilians : 1 ; Military, O.

The long-talked-of match between the Military and Civilians has come and gone And what a disappointing affair it was-Most of us were in hopes of seeing a really selentific exposition of the Soccer code instead of which we witnessed a long-drawnout and decidedly uninteresting series of largely individual efforts, with little or none of those combined movements which The life and soul of football to description of the population of the above Firm ceases; the manage being taken over by the Undersigned, was far too much individualism attempt. ed by the men of both sides, though the soldiers were undoubtedly the greatest sinners in this respect.

There were other minor reasons affecting he situation, chief among which were the excessive heat, the very fast turf, which made it rather difficult for the players to get a firm footing, and the extremely ragged character of the work of the forward vans. As to the weather conditions, they must have been discomforting in the extreme to the players, and in such a sweltering leat it is not to be wondered at that they hardly felt disposed to infuse their utmost vigour into the contest. On this point none will refuse to consider resonable excuse, but in the matters of selfah individualism and feeble shooting it is disfinctly otherwise.

Of the two sides the Civilians struck on as the more cohesive lot, the military seeming utterly at a loss to get into action as an organised team. The personnel of the cleven was good enough, with a couple of conspicuous exceptions, but the lack of understanding between the departments of the team was painful to observe. But even after granting all this, strange to say, the soldiers could claim the major share of the attack. As for finished work in front of goal, however, there was extremely little to be seen, and, unfortunately for the losers, whenever their shots were at all well directed, Kew was always wide awake.

The greatest sinuer in the military front line was Watts, whose absolute incapacity lo act as a discreet pivot, coupled with his old fault of continually lying offside, spelt disaster to the efforts of his co-workers. On Saturday's form his room would have leen far preferable to his company. In triking contrast to this player, Drew yorked all he diew to put his lide on the right side, while Taylor also was responsible for coasional emart play; but unsupported effort teldem succeeds. In the half-back division also there was 150 complete understanding. s centre Wharton was not content to salise that he possessed natural physical deadvantages in having to pope with a bigger man than himself, but he must teeds endeavour to play to the gallery whenever the opportunity presented itself. The results were inversably fatal, but still the foolishness continued. Dare was not in the picture as often as he usually is and I mye come to the conduction that the centre both is far more his position than either of the others.

Space won tallow much further comment. is to the Civilians, they gave a mixed deplay, but always seemed to make more of possible openings than their opposents. The forwards were in deutedly better form. Brown and Mead were the shiring ights but Goldenberg was little bise than a passenger. The halves did good work the most prominent man being Earley, while it back Hamilton and McCubbin were spread. The same remark applies SON ACENTS—

THE OUTLOOK.

MR ROBERT SHEWAN, from the commanding position which he occupies in the commercial world of Hongkong, is an authority whose public utterances carry more than ordinary weight. He is able to lay his finger on the pulse of so many commercial and industrial undertakings in which the investing public if any one can, be able to diagnose fairly successfully the condition of Far Eastern trade and its future prospects. Mr Shewan, speaking on Saturday at the meeting of shareholders of the China and Manila Steamship Company, once again declared himself to be ranged on the side of the optimists. He said that he expected to be twitted for taking this stand by those who held that he had no grounds to go upon. But he had sufficient answer for his critics. 'Facts," as he reminded his hearers, in the words of the old Scots preverb, are "chiels that winns ding," and he forthwith quoted a few of these stubborn things to prove the soundness of his contention. First of all he read the following from the Investor's Review of February 27th: "Last week's revenue figures were again good, income aggregating £5,256,137. Reckoning from Monday last there are thirty-three working days of the fiscal year remaining, and falling to observe the rule of the road. if the revenue for the period were to come at the same daily average as last week's of a fishing junk for disobeying the order receipts gave, March 31st would see the of the Harbour master, at the Marine Chancellor of the Ecchequer possessed of some £2,000,000 more than the estimate of last April. In other words it would only require a daily income of less than £820,000 to fully cover the estimate. whereas last week's daily average receipts amounted to £876,000." Then $10 at the Magistracy to day. Mr Shewan was able to quote Friday told us that the British revenue deficit for the year which closed on the 31st A. Hazeland. March instead of running incomillions

United Kingdon. Again, for the benefit of the croakers who are fully persuaded that England's trade, domestic colonial, is on the high road to ruin, the street, and he was further ordered to pay speaker quoted some encouraging sentences from the address of the President of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, delivered in London on Murch 2nd :- We continued to experiargely to protectionist countries, and who was Netherland-Indies. The case was our best customer? Germany In the mended for a week. wade with belging a country of chesp abour our highy efficient Consul reported that the value of the exports of goods to Great Britain did not approach that of the goods of British origin sent to Belgium. Where the door was open -in India and the Far East, in South America and in Africa we held commanding supremacy. Our trade was not carried on unprofitably. The reports of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue showed how vast was the amount and how rapid the growth of the public wealth." So much for general trade. As for shipping, said Mr SHEWAN, the Chairman of the London and India Docks Company at their half-yearly meeting Fester (Oxford) and Garrett (Cambridge) stated that "what was satisfactory was that while in London, in their own docks they had had an increase in shipping tonnage of 61,000 tons last year, Hamburg had had a decrease of 364,000 tons. Antwerp a decrease of 126,000 tons and Rotterdam a decrease of no very much abort of 1,200,000 tons: Coming nearer home, Mr SHEWAR, speak-2.30 p.m.—Auction of Electro Plated Ware, at Mr C. P. Lamment's sales ing with the assured knowledge of man who weighs his words and delivers judgment only after having taken a wide and comprehensive survey of the whole situation, is of opinion that we have at last reached the end of "the winter of our discontent," and although the spring which intervenes between that dreary period and glorious Summer may prove a time of varied. wayward, and sometimes of taying and perverse conditions, still the has been turned and we can with confidence anticipate those 'prosperous gales" which lead on to fortune and ripe content. "We have, I suppose, but we have also seen good says Mr. Shewan, "seen bad times and worse before, and will see them again, occurred on March 3. times and will see them too again, and Hippodrome Circus and Menagerie will be before very long, I think." There is a note of good cheer in this statement and the tune is pitched in a key that will not be lost on the acute sensibilities of the mercantile community. Hongkong did not meet her troubles halfway; stout of heart she shouldered are deeply interested, that he should, her burden, never doubting that the fickle America and Japan for the maintenance of jade, Dame Fortune, would weary at length of keeping her face averted and would look this way again when time and circumstance fitly served. Let us hope that the signs of the revival of trade of the Peace will be held at the Magistracy. which Mr Shewan already discerns will soon become visible to men placed Tsoi Kam, of 13 Lyndhurst Terrace, sued Chang Tsin Kwai, otherwise Chung Chik Yu, of 80 Hollywood Road, for $7,521.15 and intere t at the rate of li per cent per month, on account of some promissory notes, before the Chief Justice. Sir Francis Piggott, at the Suprence Court, to-day.

The statement of claim stated that on January 21, 1901, Chung Shun Koo lent the defendant $300 upon a promissory note repayable on demand together wit linterest at the rate of 1 per cent per month. On November 21, 1904. further sum of $1,000 was also loaned on two promissory notes at the same rate, and on March 7 1905, $100 was also lent. O February 8, 1906, Cheung Shun Koo, brother of the plaintiff, for consideration value received and with the consent and knowledge of defendant duly endorsed

Mr Calthrope said that the plaintiff had some money left him by his father who died in Canton, and who carried on busi April, 1909, to consider an application ness in Canton. He came to Hongkong some four or five years ago and made the acquaintance of Chung Shun Koo. After he hadknown him for some time, Chung Shun Koo, who was in need of money, came Wan, under the sign of "The Belle View to the plaintiff when the money was lent on the dates given. As to the notes for $100 and $300 defendant denied ever having made them, and with regard to the two notes for $2,000 each defendant denied ever having made them.

FLEIGHT. Mesers Lamks and Rogge in their freigh circular dated April 3 state :- Since issue of last circular on the 19th ultime a die, tinctly firmer tone is ruling in the freight market owing to an increased demand for tonnage both in the South and up North and, judging by the number of inquiries, which are still unfilled at time of writing, it would appear that owners hopes are last realized and the protracted period depression, which shipping on this coast has passed through, is coming to an end. Saigon-Hongkong. - The local rice market has he come considerably firmer during the last fortnight, and the rate of freight his risen to 15 cents. There are quotations now in the market of 15 and 16 cents.—From Saigon to Singapore a steamer has secured a charter on lump sum basis, which works out at about 15 cents per picul. From Saigon to Philippmes a couple of settlements have taken Newchwang. place on basis of 25 cents for 2,500 piculs. Saigon to Java a few steamers are reported closed at 23/24 cents per picul. New- 165 chwang has a charter to Canton at 23 cents for 25,000 piculs, and another fixture had been arranged to Amoy at 24 cents per picul. Reports concerning Northern freights are very favourable indeed. Yangtze business in particular is described as being very lively, and charters have been arranged from there to Canton at fa rates. As demand in this direction continues on quite a large scale, no doubt the rate will yet further stiffen. Coal freights are very steady, and rates in all directions have been following an upward tendency, There have been fixtures, Hongay to Hongkong at $1.50 and $1.70, Haiphong to Canton at $1.75, Kebao to Shanghai a $2.00. Kuchinetzu to Hongsy at $1.75 Moji to Honglong at $1.80, and Wakamatzu to Canton at $2.40. On "time for Northern trade French s.s. "Binthuan" has been settled at $4250,00 for 3 months.

CORINTHIAN YACRT CLUB. In connection with the Corinthian Yacht Club on Saturday the Hayward-Hay one design class race for the Sirius Cup took place, the course being Channel Rock (port), Cust Rock (starboard), Kowloon Rocks (storboard) and Channel Rock (starboard), the distance being about seven

The five boats to start were Liza, Marjorie, Gwen, Tremona and Hope. The former getting a good start, and the latter second position with Majorie third. A good race was the result and Liza eventually increased her lead, coming in first, with Majorie second and Gwen third. The large number of seventeen boats entered for the Victoria Dispensry Cup on Sunday, open to all classes belonging to the Club. The following were the handi-

The course of over thirteen miles was in a westerly direction with North Fairway Buoy (port), Green Island (starboard), Torpedo Mark (starboard), Trocas Rock (starboard). -

The race was somewhat slow for a while owing to there being only a slight south easterly wind but on reaching the wharves the direction of the wind was a little more to the east and Caress was the first to pass Fairway Buoy. Joan went ashore at Green Island. Later the fleet had the advantage of a north-westerly wind when Ariel took the lead with Ayesha second, Carees being third. A good race then took place between Ayesha and Corrinnee and the result was as follows, Toinette, Spray and Meta not finishing the race:-

by the second team. ROYAL HONOKONG YACHT CLUB. At the eleventh club race the yachts had a tedious sail on Saturday. They started at 2,30 p.m. with a light east wind for a race round a mark off Quarry Bay, leaving it to port, then round the Cust rocks buoy also to port, and the mark off Quarry Point starboard, and back to the Club. The starters in "A" Class were:-Dione and Vernon allowing Erica 1 min, 22 secs. Kathleen 5 mins, Colleen 5 mins, Min ! mins, Peggy 5 mins. In the one design class there started :-

Myania, Bonito 11, Halcyone, Alannah. It was a heat up to the first mark, when the yachts were well together, Vernon, Dione, Colleen and Min rounding within a few seconds of each other, Erica, Kathleen and Peggy being close up. In the small class Alannah and Halcyone led. In the run down the harbour the wind gradually died away and, after a drift of about half an hour, came from the west and carried. the boats down to the rocks off the west THE Steamship side of Quarry Bay, when the smaller boats eaught up the "A" Class. Here for quite Captain A. STEWART, will be despatched half an hour they could not make headway against the tide, but at about 5 o'clock a north wind enabled them to run down to the Quarry Point mark and eventually to the finish, the line being crossed as follows :-Time.
